DEPT. OF NATURAL RESOURCES
5. Biological description of area impacted (Please include habitat type and probable impacts to fishery and/or wildlife resources).

Oil well location canal in a cypress-tupelo shank/swamp and freshwater marsh, some aquatic invertebrates and fish mortality reported - fish flesh probably tainted to taste. Indirectly affecting birds and fur-bearing species.

Three to four acres of marsh/swamp have been destroyed probably as result of long-term leaking problem.

6. Recommended Restoration or habitat enhancement items to reduce the above impacts.

1. Treat and close pit - replace with a dune
2. Cleanup oil residues in surrounding marsh/swamp
3. Pump hydraulically dredged spoil into closed area to reestablish vegetative growth.

7. Date of Investigation: 3 August 1987

8. Investigator(s) (Name, Agency).
